RARE AULD GRAIN SCOTCH WHISKY

1990 Invergordon Sherry Cask 28 Year Old Single Grain Scotch Whisky

Situated near Cromarty in the Highlands, Invergordon Distillery was established in 1959 and is now owned by Whyte & Mackay. It only produces grain whisky, most of which is used in Whyte & Mackay blended Scotch whisky brands. The distillery was also home to malt whisky brand Ben Wyvis from 1965 to 1977.

TASTING NOTES:

Nose: Luscious soft cane fruit smothered with caramel syrup. Some subtle light spices, cloves and cinnamon.

Taste: More cane fruit. Blackberries in syrup. Cadbury's fruit and nut chocolate with extra raisins. All rounded off with a touch of white pepper.

Finish: Long, smooth and very warming. More creaminess develops to match the fruits.
